

Interpreting a Nonprofit Portrait

	PORTRAIT SECTION	RECOMMENDED BEST PRACTICE	THINGS TO CONSIDER
The Community Foundation of Central Florida's knowledge base was created to help donors become even better charitable investors. Visit the knowledge base to find a database of hundreds of nonprofit portraits.	 Programs	The portrait should clearly describe success measures along with how the program is monitored.	Do I want to fund programs that provide for immediate needs or create sustainable long-term solutions? What needs are being met by this organization that otherwise would not be provided?
Each portrait displays in-depth information to help you determine if a nonprofit is effective.  REVIEWED BY YOUR COMMUNITY FOUNDATION 	 Management	CEO and senior management has formal performance evaluations.	Does the organization have a fundraising or strategic plan? Does the organization have a management succession plan?
Look for the "Reviewed" icon for the most current information about a particular organization.	 Governance	Board meets in a policy mode with meeting attendance at or above 67%	Who is on the Board of Directors? Is there a Conflict of Interest policy? Does the Board of Directors have term limits?
